Compact, efficient and designed for smooth workflow

Ideally suited for small to medium-sized workgroups, the SP 4520DN is a compact, cost-efficient A4 black and white printer with a 4.3 inch colour touch panel for improved workflow. Thanks to its small footprint and sleek modern design, these printers can easily fit on the corner of a desk – but their small stature does not compromise on quality. Delivering stunning performance, this business printer offers best-in-class environmental credentials and superb cost efficiency.

- The best energy efficiency in its class
- Easy-to-use 4.3 inch colour touch panel
- Save money with low Total Cost of Ownership
- Offers 1200 x 1200 dpi at full speed
- Print direct from USB-stick

Perfect for your business.

High productivity in a small space

With an impressively small footprint, this printer won't take up too much space. But because it offers 1200 x 1200 dpi and prints at 40 pages per minute, there's no compromise on quality. It's the perfect combination.

State-of-the-art

The easy to use icon-based 4.3 inch colour touch panel allows you to add shortcuts and customise your home screen - as well as the benefits of easy integration with other networked equipment. Our Mobile Printing App means you can print securely from a variety of sources, and, integration with FlexRelease gives you access to view and print documents straight from the cloud.

Maximum value, for you and the environment

This printer offers extraordinarily low cost-per-page for its class – which means excellent value and low total cost of ownership compared to similar products. Furthermore, the SP 4520DN offers lowest-in-class energy consumption, reducing costs further as well as your carbon footprint so your business can thrive and save money.

Advanced integration for better workflow

Want to reduce costs, enhance document security, improve productivity or decrease your carbon footprint? Or all of the above? We can help you. Ricoh's extensive range of software solutions are designed to meet specific business needs and challenges. And, you will receive ongoing support to make sure you get the most from your investment.
